INTRODUCTION

Nanyang Technological University Muslim Society (NTUMS) is a community of Muslims from different walks of life coming together to build ukhuwah (brotherhood) and contribute to the society at large.

VISION & MISSION

VISION

A community of Mu'min (faithful believer) personalities, leading society towards Mardhatillah (the pleasure and blessings of God).

MISSION

1. To unify the Muslim community and be a place where members feel a sense of belonging.
2. To nurture the NTU Muslim community with the relevant knowledge, skills, and experience so that they are able to be contributing members to society, in line with the principles and guidelines of the religion.
3. To ensure the welfare and needs of the NTU Muslim community are being taken care of.

NTUMS SUBCOMMITTEES & ADHOCS

Subcommittees work directly with the Executive Committee members to cater to the needs of the NTUMS community throughout the academic year, while Adhocs work on various, wide-ranging projects in Semester 1 and/or 2.

SUMMARY OF NTUMS SUBCOMMITTEES

Training and Development Subcommittee

The Training and Development Subcommittee looks into the development of students, be it mentally or spiritually. They provide events to cater to the enrichment of NTUMS's members and explore various avenues for development to suit the different needs of the Muslim community. Past initiatives include three talks: Duties of a Knowledge Seeker, Women of Mankind and Night of Reflection, and book sharing sessions sharing gems from the book Agenda to Change Our Condition.

Welfare Subcommittee

The Welfare Subcommittee is responsible for planning and executing initiatives concerning the wellbeing of the Muslim community in NTU. Past initiatives include organising the Exam Welfare Programme, Custodians' Appreciation Week and Dinner Pre-order Service during examination periods.

Community Outreach Subcommittee

The Community Outreach Subcommittee aims to bridge gaps existing within NTU's multidimensional Muslim community, as well as between the NTU Muslim Community and the wider community. Past initiatives include International Day which brought together local and international Muslim undergraduates for a day of cultural exchange.

Marketing Subcommittee

The Marketing Subcommittee is in charge of NTUMS' social media accounts and public image. They publicise NTUMS' initiatives and is also a great avenue for Muslim individuals to hone their creative talents.

Assets Subcommittee

The Asset Subcommittee is integral to the smooth-running of NTUMS programmes. They provide logistical support such as Friday Prayer buses, and are also in charge of managing the prayer rooms around campus.

SUMMARY OF NTUMS ADHOCS

ISLAMIC AWARENESS PROGRAMME (IAP)

Islamic Awareness Programme (IAP) essentially aims to share about Islam and its values with NTU students. The adhoc designs various initiatives, like campaigning and talks that seek to provide valuable insight regarding the daily practices, actions and beliefs of fellow Muslims, so that others may gain even more understanding and appreciation for one of the most popular religions in the world.

SAFWA

Safwa, previously known as Muslimah Empowerment Series (MES), aims to develop a sense of community among the Muslimahs in NTU. The adhoc hopes to elevate the status of Muslimahs through knowledge, resilience and ukhuwah via events geared towards female Muslims.

ORIENTATION PROGRAMME (OP)

Orientation Programme (OP) is a collaborative effort with PERBAYU - the NTU/NIE Malay Cultural Society. This adhoc aims to welcome the new Muslim and/or Malay students to NTU/NIE. The camp helps freshmen adjust to student life whilst incorporating games and activities.

YUSRA

Yusra is a local humanitarian effort that aims to benefit the socially - and physically - disadvantaged. From events like Raya Revamp, where volunteers repainted flats in preparation for Aidilfitri, to outings with kindergarten children to the zoo, the adhoc engages a diverse range of beneficiaries.

ALTERISK

Alterisk is dedicated towards reaching out to disadvantaged youths of various backgrounds with the main purpose of making a difference to their lives. Alterisk organises camps and/or carnivals to help guide these youth and impart upon them some valuable life lessons, with Alterisk members often times taking away the very same inspiration from these amazing youth.

ELEVEN

ELEVEN (e-leven.co) is an online platform sharing a variety of content, all underlain with the message of Islam. Comprising of contributors from both within and outside NTU/NIE, ELVEN has grown into a brand of its own with a strong, dedicated readership and an increasingly significant online following.

PULSE

Pulse is a platform to inspire the Muslim community to be more physically active through the promotion of sports and games on campus. They aim to develop the Muslim community holistically, through inculcating a healthy lifestyle.

SEEKERS' GARDEN

Seeker's Garden(SG) focuses on the spiritual and intellectual development of our Muslim society. They conduct a series of lectures, each year with a different theme as well as host panel discussions with well-respected ustadz and ustazah.

OVERSEAS EXPEDITION

Overseas Expedition(OE) brings aid to underprivileged communities outside Singapore. Student volunteers spend more than a week in their country of choice to build amenities, teach classes to young children, and change lives for the better.
